

WhiteRose Energy Symposium

UK energy post 2050

9:15 - 4pm, 27th October 2015

Mappin Hall, Mappin St, Sheffield S1 3JD
The University of Sheffield

09:15 - 09:40	Registration and Coffee
09:40 - 09:45	Welcome by Professor Mike Hounslow – Pro-Vice Chancellor Engineering - University of Sheffield
09:45 - 10:00	Introduction to the day
10:00 - 11:15	Session 1 - Primary energy sources and electrical generation 3 speakers x 18 minutes each, then 20 minutes panel Q & A Chair – Peter Styring – The University of Sheffield Speaker - Jim Watson - UKERC Speaker – Grant Wilson – The University of Sheffield Speaker – Matthew Billson – The University of Sheffield
11:15 - 11:45	Morning coffee and cakes
11:45 - 13:00	Session 2 – Demand and flexibility 3 speakers x 18 minutes each, then 20 minutes panel Q & A Chair – Grant Wilson – The University of Sheffield Speaker – Building demand - Doug King – Doug King Consultancy Speaker – Balancing – Phil Grunewald – The University of Oxford Speaker – Storage and balancing – Graham Cooley, CEO, ITM Power
13:00 - 13:45	Lunch
13:45 - 15:00	Session 3 – Policy landscape 3 speakers x 18 minutes each, then 20 minutes panel Q & A Chair – Tim Cockerill – The University of Leeds Speaker - Jeff Hardy - OfGEM Speaker - Colin MacBean – Scottish Government Speaker – Jonathan Radcliffe – The University of Birmingham
15:00 - 15:20	Afternoon coffee and cakes
15:20 - 16:00	Wrap up Q & A Grant Wilson, Tim Cockerill

The venue for the day is:

Mappin Hall, Mappin St, Sheffield S1 3JD The University of Sheffield

The Blue Line tram can be taken from outside Sheffield train station (on the east side of the station) to West Street tram stop. Mappin Street is a short walk from the tram stop. Mappin Hall is on the first floor of the Mappin Building – through the main entrance and up the stairs directly in front.