

The Political Economy of BREXIT – infrastructure and investment

Wednesday 9th November 2016

University of Leeds

Geography East LT (G.23)

This workshop is part of the project 'Britain and Europe: The political economy of 'Brexit', funded by the White Rose Consortium.

09.30 – 10.00 Coffee and Registration

10.00-10.15 Welcome Charlie Dannreuther

10.15-11.45 Panel One: BREXIT and investment in the UK

Chair: Charlie

- Jim Buller, "The May Government's 'New Industrial Strategy' and Brexit" University of York Politics Department
- Jeremy Clegg, "FDI and BREXIT" Leeds University Business School
- Jonathan Perraton "Changing Course? Fiscal Policy and Post-Brexit Economic Strategies" Department of Economic, University of Sheffield
- Gary Dymksi & Annina Kaltenbrunner, "Brexit, the City of London, and the future of global finance" LUBS

11.45-12.00 Break

12.00-13.15 Panel Two: Infrastructure post BREXIT

Chair: Nicole

- Andrew Brown "Infrastructure and BREXIT" LUBS & Ibuild
- Greg Barnes Buying after Brexit: Challenges for Public Procurement following British exit. POLIS University of Leeds
- Stephen Hall, "ENERGY" School of Earth and Environment, Leeds University

13.15-14.15 Lunch

14.15-15.15 Keynote: Wyn Grant "An Uncertain Future for Agriculture" PAIS University of Warwick

15.15-15.45 Break

15.45-17.00 Panel Three street level investment post BREXIT

Chair: Scott

- Chris Clarke "Digital Disruption in SME Finance after Brexit" PAIS University of Warwick
- Ismail Erturk, "Can the banking system finance infrastructure investments in post-Brexit U.K.?" University of Manchester
- Charlie Dannreuther "After the EIB?" POLIS University of Leeds

For more information please contact organisers Charlie Dannreuther ipicd@leeds.ac.uk or Scott Lavery scott.lavery@sheffield.ac.uk